

Roberto Domínguez is Associate Professor in the Department of Government at Suffolk University. He holds a Ph. D. in International Studies from University of Miami and an M.A. from Ortega y Gasset Foundation, Spain as well as a Diploma on US Studies at the University of California in San Diego. Dr. Domínguez's research interest is on security governance and regional integration. He is currently a member of the funded trinational project PIERAN to conduct an evaluation on "NAFTA: 20 Years After". The following are some of his recent publications: Security Governance and Regional Organizations (with Emil Kirchner, Routledge, 2011); European Union Foreign Policy (New York: Edwing Mellen Press, 2008) and Lisbon Fado: The European Union under Reform (with Joaquin Roy, Miami European Union Center, 2009).