A Midsummer Night's Dream is Shakespeare's happiest and best loved comedy. The delightful tale about love in an enchanted, moon drenched wood has such universality in its gentle debunking of human foibles that each new production we see reveals fresh facets of Shakespeare's genius. We invite you to join us in our view of this magical world, to meet again Titania and Oberon, Puck, and Bottom, and to see again why we must agree with Puck: "Lord, what fools these mortals be."

The quality of FIU Theatre was recognized by Candice Russell, Theatre Critic for The Miami Herald when she included our production of In the Boom-Boom Room in her list of ten best theatre productions in the area for 1978. It was the only college or university theatre production included.
