JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

Ten years have lapsed since Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice wrote their revolutionary Rock-Opera, portraying earth. The form was raw and bold, and took the world of entertainment by storm. They wrote a musical that addressed itself to an impulsive 60's generation, often lost and misguided, searching for some tangible expression of faith. They challenged audiences with a view of Jesus the Man, revealing His frailties, fears and strenghts. Rather than rely upon a technically spectacular staging, Director Philip Church intends to renegotiate the often neglected values of relationship and conflict between Jesus, Judas, Mary and Pilate, creating an exciting new conceptualizatioin for an 80's audience. A spirited cast of 32 actors will perform under the musical direction of Joe Rohm and John Augenblick. Choreography by Lee Brooke, Sets by Paul Mazer and Costumes by Marilyn Skow.

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR is certainly a landmark in contemporary musical theater, establishing a unique blend of Rock and Opera. Without a doubt it proves to be a theater experience to be enjoyed by young and old alike!
