FIU DIGITAL COMMONS ANNUAL REPORT

FY 2016-2017

Jill Krefft
Institutional Repository
Coordinator

Background

FIU's Institutional Repository is a full-text, online, open access repository and publishing platform for the scholarship, creative output and history of FIU. The goals of the repository are to:

- Serve as a persistent and centralized access point for FIU scholarship and creative works
- Promote faculty and student research to a global community
- Preserve the history, growth and development of FIU
- Provide a platform for faculty to post Open Access copies of publications to meet OA requirements of funding agencies.

The Institutional Repository is managed and administered by Jill Krefft, Institutional Repository Coordinator; Jamie Rogers, Assistant Department Head Digital Collections Center; with additional support from the staff of the FIU Digital Collections Center, Special Collections and University Archives, and University Graduate School. More information is available at:

<http://digitalcommons.fiu.edu/about.html>

The repository is hosted by Berkley Electronic Press (BePress), which boasts a strong network of over 500 institutions across the globe. Our repository hosts close to 13,000 papers, presentations, reports, images, and videos from over 60 departments and centers.

FY 2016-2017 Highlights

- Digital Commons hit a new milestone this year with 2 Million Downloads and counting.
- The top three most downloaded collections were the Electronic Thesis and Dissertation Collection (205,674), South Florida Education Research Conference Proceedings (98,514), and the Hospitality Review (61,844). Each of these collections saw an increase in downloads from previous years.
- Digital Commons saw an increase in humanities collections and research represented in the repository. These collections include the Spanish and Mediterranean Studies Archive, Fragile Habitat: Conversations for Miami's future, and faculty publications from the Department of Religious Studies, Department of Modern Languages, and Department of English.
- Special Collections and University Archives led the initiative to digitize and archive production ephemera for the Department of Theatre's productions beginning from the late 1960's. This collection is unique across all BePress repositories and provides a rare opportunity for users to experience this collection.
- This year we launched our first Medical School journal, the Florida Medical Student Research Journal (FMSRJ). FMSRJ is a student-run, peer-reviewed journal that publishes scholarly works related to medicine and healthcare authored by medical students, graduate students, and professionals.
- With support from Tech Fee funding, Digital Collections Center staff in partnership with the Division of IT and Special Collections and University Archives, continued work on the retrospective thesis digitization project to digitize and make available through Digital Commons the collection of bound theses and dissertations held by the FIU Libraries. To date there are 1,126 retrospective thesis and dissertations in Digital Commons, with almost 70% openly available full text.

- Digital Commons incorporated ORCID fields in the Electronic Thesis and Dissertations Collection, enhancing opportunities for students to utilize the unique author identifier.
- Collection growth was supported by the development of new strategies for capturing research from sources such as Web of Science, Directory of Open Access Journals and PubMed.

Looking Ahead

For FY 2017-2018, we look forward to

- Continued development of the ETD Data Pilot Program and expanded data archiving services;
- Expanding publishing services by growing the existing suite of resources available to editors, including DOI creation;
- Explore new tools and resources for populating the IR and SelectedWorks profiles;
- Continued ingest of retrospective theses and dissertations;
- Continued support of FIU Preeminent Programs and Organizational Research Units;
- Expanding collaborations and partnerships at the university and community levels.

Readership Distribution

The readership distribution illustrates the reach and visibility of our collections to the global community.

Readership by Country

Digital Commons Collections were accessed from 224 countries around the world. Below are the top 20 countries to download the collections.

10. Danmarks Tekniske Universitet

Growth Over the Years

Digital Commons began tracking its usage in 2011. Since then, collection size has increased annually at a steady pace. Strategic partnerships across campus departments, centers and institutes as well as the development of new strategies for harvesting of content to minimize burden on faculty helped grow the collections this year.

In particular, this year Special Collections and University Archives worked to include even more unique collections in Digital Commons, including the Department of Theatre Collection and the FIU Magazine. This strengthened partnership demonstrates the importance of collaboration in developing new and unique collections.

Through the development of new workflows, we were able to harvest over 500 open access articles from Web of Science and over 200 additional open access articles from the Directory of Open Access Journals. These are all now available in our collections and helped to broaden representation of disciplines across the university.

In FY2016-2017, Digital Commons supported collaboration with, and contributions and collection building, from the following colleges, schools, departments, centers and institutes at FIU:

African and African Diaspora Studies	Department of Physical Therapy
Bimolecular Sciences Institute	Department of Physics
Center for Children and Families	Department of Psychology
Center for Internet Augmented Research & Assessment	Department of Public Administration
Center for Leadership Current Research	Department of Religious Studies
Center for Research on U.S. Latino HIV/AIDS and Drug Abuse	Department of Teaching and Learning
Center for the Study of Matter at Extreme Conditions	Department of Theatre
College of Medicine	Division of IT
Cuban Research Institute	Electrical and Computer Engineering
School of Architecture	Environmental & Occupational Health
Department of Biological Sciences	Extreme Events Institute
Department of Biomedical Engineering	Florida Coastal Everglades Long Term Ecological Network (FCE-LTER)
Department of Biostatistics	Honors College
College of Business	Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center (LACC)
Department of Chemistry	Nicole Wertheim College of Nursing and Health Sciences
Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering	Office of Research and Economic Development ORED
Department of Criminal Justice	Phillip and Patricia Frost Art Museum
Department of Dietetics and Nutrition	School of Communication + Journalism
Department of Earth and Environment	School of Computing and Information Sciences
Department of Economics	School of Education and Human Development
