FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Florida International University is a vibrant, student-centered public research university, ideally located in Miami, that is Worlds Ahead in its commitment to learning, research, entrepreneurship, innovation and creativity so that our graduates are prepared to succeed in the global market.

Since 1965, when it was chartered as the area’s first public university, FIU has built a reputation for excellence in teaching, research and community engagement. Since taking office in August 2009, President Mark Rosenberg has focused on strengthening student-centered academic excellence, enhancing research that supports community priorities and expanding community partnerships.

FIU has a diverse and nationally celebrated faculty who bring a global perspective to their research and teaching. Our vibrant student body comes from throughout the United States and more than 130 countries. FIU’s worlds ahead alumni have risen to prominence in every field. The university takes full advantage of its ideal location, which serves as a “living laboratory” for many of its programs and offers unparalleled career opportunities. As a public university located in one of the nation’s great cities, FIU offers a combination of vast resources, personal attention and affordability.

The university offers more than 200 baccalaureate, master’s, doctoral and specialist degree programs in its colleges and schools: College of Architecture and The Arts, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, College of Education, College of Engineering and Computing, Honors College, College of Law, Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine, College of Medicine, College of Nursing and Health Sciences, School of Hospitality and Tourism Management, School of Journalism and Mass Communication, and Robert Stempel College of Public Health and Social Work.

FIU has more than 42,500 students, 1,000 full-time faculty and more than 146,000 alumni. The university has three campuses – Modesto A. Maidique Campus in western Miami-Dade County; the Biscayne Bay Campus in northeast Miami-Dade County, and the FIU Broward Pines Center, an academic facility in nearby Broward County. The 40-acre Engineering Center, a major research facility, is located near Modesto A. Maidique Campus.

Outstanding Alumnus

Frank van der Post recently joined British Airways as managing director of Brands & Customer Experience and executive director of the board, bringing to the airline more than two decades of customer service experience and a passion for world-class service.

In his previous role as COO for the Jumeirah Group, widely known in the hospitality industry as one of the world's most exclusive hotel and resort groups, van der Post was responsible for operations, guest services and the satisfaction and profitability of the group's operating businesses worldwide.

Upon joining Jumeirah in 2005, as senior vice president for the Americas, he steered the takeover and subsequent $90 million renovation and repositioning of the Essex House. He also oversaw a number of operations, including regional global sales and marketing activities and corporate excellence.

Van der Post previously spent 21 years with the InterContinental Hotels Group in Europe and North America, which recruited him after graduation. His last position with them was vice president for the East Coast of the United States and the Caribbean and general manager of The Barclay in New York.

Van der Post received his bachelor's of science in hotel and restaurant management and his master's of science in hotel administration from the FIU School of Hospitality Management and Tourism Management.

David F. Alfonso '96
Outstanding Alumnus

An accomplished businessman with more than two decades of experience in mergers and acquisitions, David F. Alfonso is the founder, chairman and CEO of Empire Investment Holdings, a private investment firm focused on the acquisition and strategic management of business units from public and private corporations.

Throughout his career, Alfonso has completed more than 50 transactions and acted as the portfolio manager of a highly diversified group of companies acquired in North America, Asia, Europe and Latin America, with aggregate annual revenues of more than $5 billion and 15,000 employees worldwide.

Prior to establishing Empire Investment Holdings in 2003, he was senior vice president and principal of Platinum Equity; managing director of Hartford Life International; and director of sales and marketing with the American Bankers Insurance Group.

A Lifetime Member of the FIU Alumni Association, Alfonso has served on the FIU Foundation Board of Directors since 2008. He is an active supporter of the FIU Athletic Department, providing scholarships to four student athletes (football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball). He recently made a gift that resulted in the naming of the football team's home field, now known as Alfonso Field at FIU Stadium. He also supports various community organizations, such as the Jimmie Johnson Foundation, Veterans of WWII and the Vizcaya Museum & Gardens.

Alfonso has a bachelor's of arts in international relations from the FIU College of Arts & Sciences.

Allan Phipps MS '00
Outstanding Alumnus

An educator for 11 years and a recent Torch Award winner, Allan Phipps teaches advanced placement courses in environmental science and alternative energies at South Plantation High's Everglades Restoration & Environmental Science Magnet Program.

Known for engaging his students in hands-on, project-based learning, Phipps mentors his young charges in numerous environmental projects, including the deployment of artificial reefs and a student-built solar car that his class races every year. The team clinched the national championship in 2009.

Two years ago, President Obama presented Phipps with the Presidential Award for Excellence in Math and Science Teaching, which he received during a trip to the White House.

He also was named Florida Governor's Serve to Preserve: Green Schools' 2009 Teacher of the Year and recently was recognized as the 2011 Broward County Teacher of the Year and a Florida Macy's Teacher of the Year finalist.

During his time at FIU, his research took him to Japan to study the efficacy of traditional detoxification methods when removing ibotenic acid and muscimol from Amanita muscaria.

Phipps has a master's of science in biology from the FIU College of Arts & Sciences.

FIU Medallion

Jaime Canavés
University Service

FIU Professor Jaime Canavés is a founding member of the university’s architecture and design programs with more than three decades of experience as an educator, mentor and professional.

During his tenure at FIU, Canavés has made numerous contributions to the pedagogy of the School of Architecture. He has served as associate dean and director of research at the school and also established and directed SOAP, the School of Architecture Practice. Through this design-build enterprise, he engaged students in substantive community outreach, including the creation and construction of the first playground for handicapped children in Metro Miami, among other projects.

Twenty years ago, Canavés created one of FIU’s most enduring traditions, the popular Walk-on Water student competition that is part class assignment, part university gathering. The event brings together hundreds of students, architects, alumni and community members to campus each fall.

A well-respected member of the FIU family and the architecture community, Canavés has received an Honors College fellowship and several FIU Teaching Excellence Awards. The co-founder and executive director of Bial Miami + Beach, an international professional and academic exposition now entering its 10th year, he was named a fellow in education by the American Institute of Architects (AIA). In 2007, the Florida/Caribbean Region of the AIA named him the inaugural recipient of the William G. McMinn Medal for Outstanding Contributions to Architecture Education.

FIU Medallion

Pedro Jose “Joe” Greer Jr., M.D.
Cal Kovens Distinguished Community Service Award

Dr. Pedro Jose “Joe” Greer Jr., is a founding faculty member of the FIU Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine, the founder of Camillus Health Concern and the founder and medical director of the Saint John Bosco clinic.

Through his work at Camillus, which he established as a medical intern in 1984, Dr. Greer has provided access to health care to more than 10,000 of Miami’s homeless, undocumented and poor. His concern for those without health care has fueled his passion to work on their behalf and in 2009, President Obama presented him with a prestigious Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor in the United States.

Currently, he is assistant dean for Academic Affairs at FIU’s College of Medicine and chairman of the Department of Humanities, Health, and Society. A former advisor to presidents Clinton and Bush Sr., Greer also runs a private practice of gastroenterology at Mercy Hospital with his father. Better known as “Joe”, he is the author of Waking Up in America, an autobiographical account of his early years working under the bridges of Miami to his years at the White House.

During his career, Greer has received a MacArthur “Genius” Fellowship and a Presidential Service Award from presidents Clinton, Bush and Carter, as well as three Papal medals, and he has been named a Knight of Malta and the Order of Saint Gregory the Great.

THE COMMENCEMENT:

An Academic Tradition

Michael J. Wagner, Ph.D., Retired Professor of Music Education

At every academic institution, commencement exercises are the high point of the calendar. Since the purpose of a college or university is to prepare its students to merit the conferral of an academic degree, the commencement ceremony serves as the instrument for exhibiting the success of both the university and its students in fulfilling this primary goal. The rites involved in the celebration of commencement stem from civilization's earliest times. In fact, the very word, commencement, means a beginning. If you are familiar with the trappings of this grand ceremony, you are aware that the traditions carried forth from medieval days are revealed in all of their pomp, color and symbolism. It is a celebration of new beginnings. For participants and observers alike, commencement is meant to be both self-serving and an emotional experience.

The Chain of Office

The University President is the ceremony's convener and chief presider at the commencement ceremonies. The great chain, which is the FIU chain of office, is displayed on stage. This ancient symbol is perhaps the most beautiful and artistic of any of the accoutrements of the ceremony. During the Renaissance, holders of very high office sometimes wore a chain as a symbol of their authority. FIU's chain is made of sterling silver and its designs are cast, cut and etched. The center medallion represents the world and is surrounded by sea shells cast from an actual shell. Reflecting the university and the South Florida area are the eight ovals which make up the chain. Each link is connected by a shell motif and exemplifies a specific entity: 1) the University Park tower, 2) the Vrana sculpture over the entrance of Primera Casa, and 3) the Torch of Friendship. The others represent the five original schools in the FIU community: Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Hospitality Management, and Engineering. Inscribed upon four of the medallions are the names and dates of tenure of FIU presidents — Charles Perry, Harold Crosby, Gregory Wolfe, Modesto A. Maidique. The chain was designed by Dr. Clem Pennington, associate professor of art education, now retired, and executed in 1977 by Leo Shirker, a Miami goldsmith, art teacher and FIU alumnus.

The Mace

The Grand Marshal carries a ceremonial club called a mace. In antiquity, when an official of high rank went out in public, a mace-bearer was assigned to accompany him in order to literally beat away those who got close enough to try to petition the favors of the official. Today, the bearing of the university's mace is ceremonial in nature, signifying the authority and authenticity of those who are to follow.

Music

Music plays an important role in the commencement experience. The commencement procession begins with the playing of Aaron Copland's Fanfare for the Common Man. It is followed by Liberty Fanfare, composed by John Williams and followed with the familiar Pomp and Circumstance March #1, by Sir Edward Elgar. This march, one of a set of five Pomp and Circumstance marches by Elgar, is traditionally played at commencement ceremonies throughout the United States, and many places around the world. It has come to symbolize the commencement experience. After the processional, and after the academic body is assembled, our national anthem, The Star Spangled Banner, is played.

After the National Anthem, the FIU Alma Mater is played. This piece of FIU symbolism was composed by Clair McElfresh of the FIU Music faculty, former dean of undergraduate studies, and now retired.

Marshals

The leader of the academic procession is the Grand Marshal. At FIU, this prestigious honor goes to the chairperson of the Faculty Senate, which is the democratic collegial governance body of the faculty. You will notice that as the Grand Marshal processes, the mace (a formidable weapon) is held at port arms, the ready position for quick protection. Faculty and student marshals have been elected to lead candidates for graduation from each of the university's schools and colleges.

The Dais Party

The Dais Party is also known as the Platform Party. This group is composed of the university's administrative leaders and very special guests. The Dais Party enters the hall before the faculty and proceeds directly to stage. At the end of the processional, the Grand Marshal declares the proceedings open, and the ceremony moves forward.

Academic Regalia

The tradition of wearing distinctive academic attire at commencement ceremonies originated in Europe in the twelfth century. However, gowns and capes had been worn by clerics and ecclesiastics even before that date. A heavy black or brown gown was apparently worn at all times. Hoods and capes were also a necessity during the long, cold European winters because the buildings in which scholars lived, studied and taught were cold and drafty. When not being used to provide warmth, hoods and baggy sleeves served the same purpose as do today's pockets. Often a crust of bread or some cheese were tucked away in them for sustenance on a long journey. The academic costume at English universities (from which many of our American commencement traditions originate) can be traced as far back as the middle of the fourteenth century, to the time when scholars were rebuked that a decent habit was to be worn (Statutes of Peterhouse, 1344). This document further prescribed the code of dress for university teachers of that era. In a 1432 statute, students and even doctors of theology were restricted to bunge and sad-colored habits. The robes of master were to be flowing and reach the ankles. In an order dated 1358, tailors were admonished not to stint the robes, which should be argae et talares, because clerks (of whom scholars were one type) should be distinguished from the laity. A few universities still require students and faculty to wear a short gown both on and off the university campus. Oxford, Cambridge and some Scottish universities maintain this custom. The faculties of American universities have worn academic garb for commencement ceremonies since the beginning of the system. For almost 250 years, each university chose its own costume until it was realized that in 1896 an event unique in history would be taking place. This was the simultaneous celebrations of the 250th anniversary of Harvard University and the 500th anniversary of Heidelberg University. Because of this unique circumstance, the Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume was opened in 1895 to record the distinctive colors of institutions, their arrangement, the particulars of gowns, hoods and caps, as well as information pertaining to academic ceremonies. At that time, an American code of academic dress was agreed upon to which we adhere today with few modifications. Since Spring 2011, FIU has selected to use earth-friendly academic regalia for undergraduate and graduate students. The fabric is manufactured from molten plastic pellets recycled from approximately 23 water bottles and feels like traditional fabric. This initiative underlines FIU's commitment to sustainability.

Gowns

Academic gowns of today are most easily identified by the distinctive style of their sleeves. The bachelor's gown is worn closed and its sleeves are long, open and pointed. The master's gown can be worn either open or closed, and has long distinctive sleeves which are closed, with a slit near the elbow to free the hand and forearm. These pointed sleeves hang down from the elbow to below the hand. The doctor's gown can be worn either opened or closed, and has five inches of velvet trim down both front edges, and three velvet chevrons on each sleeve. The velvet trim may be either black or the color of the discipline in which the degree is granted. The sleeves are closed and bloused.

Hoods

Probably the greatest degree of symbolism is expressed with the academic hood. Those who hold bachelor's degrees and participate in commencement sometimes wear a hood. Candidates for the bachelor's degree do not. The bachelor's hood is black and is three-feet long, with a two-inch velvet border in the color of discipline in which the degree is awarded. The master's hood is also of black material, and is three-and-one-half feet long with a three-inch velvet border in the color of the discipline. It is lined with the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The doctor's hood is four-feet long, has a five-inch velvet border in the the color of the discipline, and is lined with the colors of the institution granting the degree.

Caps

Traditionally, the Oxford style square cap is considered proper headdress. In recent times, however, it has become stylish to wear a soft cap of either square or octagonal shape. All graduates wear a tassel over the left side of the cap. Bachelor's and master's tassels may be black or the color of the academic discipline, while doctor's tassels are always gold.

These are by no means all of the styles or accoutrements worn as academic dress. Indeed, in South American, Spanish and Dutch universities, the academic attire can be likened to plumage. It is not uncommon to see brightly colored gowns adorned with ermine and other furs, flowing capes, and caps trimmed with beads or tassels. Some universities in South America even add Indian feathers to the headdress, in honor of the Inca Indians. At Florida International University, whose colors are blue and gold, the traditional colors of the disciplines are:

The Honors College

Graduates of the Honors College have had the opportunity to work with some of the University's most outstanding faculty members in a program of excellence in academics, personal development, and service. The College boasts faculty from a wide array of academic disciplines and students from 80 different nations and states. The Honors College provides top students with an interdisciplinary education that complements their major fields and prepares them to compete in the workplace or for graduate or professional school placement after graduation.

Created as a program in 1990, the College has grown to include over a thousand students and forty-three faculty members in an exciting and challenging academic environment. The Honors College now provides a full range of opportunities and support activities for its students, including study abroad courses, individual advising, research and internship programs, and service opportunities. The heart of the college is its creative and supportive community.

The Curriculum

Honors seminars are unique classes that assure a challenging thread winds through the undergraduate experience of all students in the College, regardless of major. Every semester Honors College students take an interdisciplinary honors seminar. Most are team-taught by three to four members of the Honors faculty. Students and faculty members meet each week for large group lectures, panel discussions, student presentations and films; they also meet weekly in small discussion sessions to analyze reading assignments and to elaborate on issues raised during the large group. Students thus have the opportunity to work closely with one faculty member, while learning from several in their large group, from the earliest point in their studies. Third and fourth year students take advanced trans-disciplinary seminars and/or study abroad trips or participate in research.

The Students

Students chosen for the College are excellent students capable of performing well in the rigorous Honors curriculum as well as in their other course work. The average SAT score for Honors students is 1870. Admission, however, is not simply based on numbers. Since the "ideal" Honors student should be active in the community and seeks out challenges both academically and personally, emphasis is placed on letters of recommendation, a personal essay, and the breadth of the student's experiences.

The success of these graduates of the Honors College is yet another example of Florida International University's continuing commitment to providing an exceptional undergraduate education for its students.

Major Professor: Dr. Roger Geertz Gonzalez

College of Engineering and Computing

Andrew Anthony Allen

Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science

Dissertation: Abstractions to Support Dynamic Adaptation of Communication Frameworks for User-centric Communication

Major Professor: Dr. Peter J. Clarke

Rafael Hubert Alpízar

Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science

Dissertation: Secure Information Flow via Stripping and Fast Simulation

Major Professor: Dr. Geoffrey Smith

Rene Alejandro Amaya

Doctor of Philosophy in Industrial and Systems Engineering

Dissertation: A Diagnostic Framework for Demand

Amplification Problems in Supply Chains

Major Professor: Dr. Ronald Giachetti

Lily Chang

Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science

Dissertation: A Nested Petri Net Framework for

Modeling and Analyzing Multi-Agent Systems

Major Professor: Dr. Xudong He

Kai Chen

Doctor of Philosophy in Electrical Engineering

Dissertation: Mitigating Congestion by Integrating Time Forecasting

and Realtime Information Aggregation in Cellular Networks

Major Professor: Dr. Niki Pissinou

Po-Ching Chen

Doctor of Philosophy in Biomedical Engineering

Dissertation: In Vivo Tissue Diagnosis for Myocardial Infarction using

Optical Spectroscopy with Novel Spectral Interpretation Algorithms

Major Professor: Dr. Wei-Chiang Lin

Sarah Jane Erickson

Doctor of Philosophy in Biomedical Engineering

Dissertation: Clinical Translation of a Hand-held Optical Imager for

Breast Cancer Diagnostics: In Vitro and In Vivo Tomography Studies

Major Professor: Dr. Anuradha Godavarty

Rizwan Ul-Haque Farooqui

Doctor of Philosophy in Civil Engineering

Dissertation: Achieving Zero Accidents- A Strategic Framework

for Continuous Safety Improvement in the Construction Industry

Co-Major Professor: Dr. Syed M. Ahmed

Co-Major Professor: Dr. Berrin Tansel

José Carlos Flores-Molina

Doctor of Philosophy in Industrial and Systems Engineering

Dissertation: A Total Quality Management

Methodology for Universities

Major Professor: Dr. Chin-Sheng Chen

Omar Granados

Doctor of Philosophy in Electrical Engineering

Dissertation: Space-Time Coding for Polynomial Phase

Modulated Signals

Major Professor: Dr. Jean Andrian

Changan Han

Doctor of Philosophy in Electrical Engineering

Dissertation: Neural Network Based Off-line

Handwritten Text Recognition System

Major Professor: Dr. Malek Adjouadi

Mouncef Lahlou

Doctor of Philosophy in Electrical Engineering

Dissertation: Color-Based Surface Reflectance Separation

for Scene Illumination Estimation and Rendering

Major Professor: Dr. Malek Adjouadi

Jesus Alonso Mena

Doctor of Philosophy in Industrial and Systems Engineering

Dissertation: A Quantitative Approach to the Organizational

Design Problem

Major Professor: Dr. Chin-Sheng Chen

Mark Rossman

Doctor of Philosophy in Electrical Engineering

Dissertation: Automated Detection of Hematological Abnormalities

through Classification of Flow Cytometric Data Patterns

2011 Doctoral Candidates (continued)

Muhammad Azhar Saleem

Doctor of Philosophy in Civil Engineering

Dissertation: Alternatives to Steel Grid Bridge Decks

Major Professor: Dr. Amir Mirmiran

Bo Shao

Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science

Dissertation: User-Centric Music Information Retrieval

Major Professor: Dr. Tao Li

Zhengguo Sun

Doctor of Philosophy in Computer Science

Dissertation: Large Scale Data Processing using MapReduce

Major Professor: Dr. Naphthali Rishe

Yan Xiao

Doctor of Philosophy in Civil Engineering

Dissertation: Hybrid Approaches to Estimate

Freeway Travel Time Based on Point Traffic Detectors

Major Professor: Dr. Mohammed Hadi

Yao Y. Yan

Doctor of Philosophy in Civil Engineering

Dissertation: Spatial Modeling and Uncertainty Analysis of

Sediments Quality of Lake Okeechobee, Florida under Extreme

Environmental Forcing

Major Professor: Dr. Fernando R. Miralles-Wilhelm

Zhongping Zhai

Doctor of Philosophy in Industrial and Systems Engineering

Dissertation: The Order Selection and Lot Sizing

Problem in the Make-to-Order Environment

Major Professor: Dr. Chin-Sheng Chen

Yanming Zheng

Doctor of Philosophy in Industrial and Systems Engineering

Dissertation: Minimizing Makespan for Hybrid Flowshops with

Batch, Discrete Processing Machines and Arbitrary Job Sizes

Co-Major Professor: Dr. Chin-Sheng Chen

Co-Major Professor: Dr. Sayed M. Ahmed

Robert Stempel College of Public Health and Social Work

Victor Onyishi Okoh

Doctor of Philosophy in Public Health

Dissertation: 4-Hydroxy Estradiol-Induced Oxidant-Mediated

Signaling is Involved in the Development of Breast Cancer

Major Professor: Dr. Deodutta Roy

Rosalind Brigham Penney

Doctor of Philosophy in Public Health

Dissertation: Thioredoxin and Jab1 Control Estrogen- and

Antiestrogen-Mediated Progression of the Cell Cycle through p27

Interactions

Major Professor: Dr. Deodutta Roy

Stacey Lyn Tannenbaum

Doctor of Philosophy in Dietetics and Nutrition

Dissertation: An Investigation into Equations for Estimating Water

Requirements and the Development of New Equations for Predicting

Total Water Intake

Major Professor: Dr. Victoria H. Castellanos

Joan Anne Vaccaro

Doctor of Philosophy in Dietetics and Nutrition

Dissertation: Medical Advice, Diabetes Self-Management, and Health

Outcomes of a Multi-ethnic Population from the National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey 2007-2008

Major Professor: Dr. Fatma G. Huffman

Spring 2011

On behalf of the FIU Alumni Association and its Board of Directors we extend our congratulations and welcome you to your new family of more than 160,000 alumni.

Your Alumni Association exists to support the goals and mission of FIU and to be a viable resource for engaging alumni. The Association helps fund scholarships and sponsors numerous events including the Torch Awards Gala, Fishing Tournament, Silver Pride Reunion, Panther Pit tailgates and Career Networking.

Membership in the Alumni Association is a great way for you to show your school pride and establish a lifelong relationship with the university. As a member, you have a huge alumni network at your finger tips. The FIU Alumni Association is over 22,000 members strong and growing.

Stay connected and get perks:

Receive member-only event invitations and discounts to theme parks, car rentals, hotels and much more.

Jumpstart your career:

Find out about job opportunities from alumni and Fortune 100 companies by registering to My Panther Network, a career networking site exclusive for FIU Alumni

Get your lifetime email address:

Sign up for a lifetime affinity email address with alumni.fiu.edu as your tag.

Network, Network, Network:

Attend one of our many upcoming events or join an Alumni Chapter.

Keep in touch with old friends:

Search for your classmates online.

The FIU Alumni Association will always be your home away from home! Whenever you are on campus, stop by and pay us a visit in MARC Suite 510 at MMC. Remember membership has its privileges. You can enjoy all the benefits of being an active member by joining online at [www.fiu alumni.com](http://www.fiu alumni.com) or calling 305-348-3334.

GO PANTHERS!

Best regards,

Jack Gonzalez '97
President, Alumni Association
