COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

E. T. York, Jr.

A native of DeKalb County, Alabama, E.T. York, Jr., is a veteran administrator in both government and education. After serving as Administrator of the Federal Extension Service, U.S.D.A., he came to Florida in 1963 as Provost for Agriculture at the University of Florida. In 1971, his title was changed to Vice President for Agricultural Affairs. In March 1973, he was named Executive Vice President and from September, 1973, York served as Interim President of the University of Florida.

In August, 1974, York became Chancellor-Designate of the State University System of Florida, and assumed the office of Chancellor in July, 1975.

York holds B.S. and M.S. Degrees from Auburn University and the Ph.D. Degree from Cornell, and has studied law at George Washington University. He has also held teaching, research, and administrative responsibilities at both North Carolina State and Auburn Universities.

Generally regarded as one of the top educational administrators in the nation, York has been given major assignments by Presidents Kennedy, Johnson, and Nixon. He has traveled in more than 50 foreign governments in the fields of education, agriculture, and economic development.

York has been a frequent advisor to many national scientific and educational groups and has extensive policy-making service on key boards, commissions, and committees of the National Academy of Sciences, the American Council on Education, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the Southern Regional Education Board, the National 4-H Foundation, the National 4-H Service Committee, and the Southern Interstate Nuclear Board.

York has received numerous awards of state, national and international prominence, including the Gamma Sigma Delta Honor Society International Award for Distinguished Service. He is the author of more than 100 papers in educational and scientific journals, books, and periodicals, and has spoken or lectured in more than 40 universities in the United States and abroad.

In civic activities, York has served as president of the Gainesville Rotary Club, president of the Alachua County United Way, president of the Alachua County Voluntary Action Center, and as a board member of the Alachua County Chapter of the American Red Cross. He has also served as chairman of the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church of Gainesville.

ORADOR DE LA GRADUCACION

Nativo de la ciudad DeKalb, Alabama, E.T. York es un veterano administrador en el gobierno y en la educación. Después de haber servido como administrador del "Servicio de extensión Federal", U.S.D.A., él vino a la Florida en 1963 como Superintendente de Agricultura de la Universidad de la Florida. En 1971, su título fue cambiado a Vicepresidente para Asuntos Agrícolas. En Marzo, 1973, él fue nombrado Vicepresidente Ejecutivo y desde Septiembre, 1973, York ha servido de Presidente Interino de la Universidad de la Florida.

En Agosto de 1974, York se convirtió en Canciller Designado del Sistema Estatal de la Universidad de la Florida, y asumió la posición de Canciller en Julio de 1975.

York posee un título de Bachiller en Ciencias y un "Master" en Ciencias de la Universidad de Auburn así como un Doctorado en Filosofía de Cornell, y ha estudiado leyes en la Universidad George Washington. También ha tenido responsabilidades de enseñanza, investigación y administración en las Universidades de Carolina del Norte y Auburn.

Es generalmente considerado como uno de los más eminentes administradores educacionales en la nación por los Presidentes Kennedy, Johnson y Nixon. Él ha viajado por más de 50 países extranjeros y ha servido de consultante para el Departamento del Estado de los Estados Unidos, la Agencia para Desarrollo Internacional, y en gobiernos extranjeros en los campos de educación, agricultura, y desarrollo económico.

York ha sido un frecuente aconsejador a muchos grupos nacionales científicos y educacionales y tiene extensivo servicio en la formulación de planes de acción de juntas claves, comisiones y comités de la Academia Nacional de Ciencias, el Consejo Americano de Docencia, el Departamento de Agricultura de los Estados Unidos, la Junta de Educación de la Región Meridional, la Fundación Nacional de 4-H, el Comité Nacional de Servicio de 4-H, y el Consejo Nuclear Interestatal Meridional.

York ha recibido numerosos premios de prominencia nacional, internacional y del estado, entre los cuales se comprende el Premio Internacional de la Sociedad Honoraria Gamma Sigma Delta por Servicio Distinguido. Él es autor de más de 100 papeles educacionales y diarios científicos, libros y periódicos. También ha hablado o conferenciado en más de 40 universidades en los Estados Unidos y el extranjero.

En actividades cívicas York ha servido de presidente del Gainesville Rotary Club, presidente del Alachua County United Way, presidente del Alachua County Centro de Acciones Voluntarias y miembro del Alachua County Chapter de la Cruz Roja Americana. Él también ha servido como presidente tribunal de la Diaconía de la Primera Iglesia Bautista de Gainesville.
