Variety of Print Requests

Spanish (continued)

For a complete listing of our Spanish programs, please request our SPANISH LANGUAGE & LITERATURE brochure.

Latin American Literature

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz

This program tells the story of the great baroque poet Sor Juana. It shows her withdrawal from the glitter of court life to the contemplative serenity of the convent, where she spent her days studying and composing poetry. In Spanish.

DVD / 35 min / 1990 / #FAM2541 - $89

Juan Rufo

In this video, the author of Pedro Páramo explains how the death, violence, and extreme poverty depicted in his fiction are a reflection of his years as an orphan in revolutionary Mexico. In Spanish.

VHS / 60 min / 1983 / #FAM566 - $129

Pablo Neruda, Jorge Luis Borges, and Rubén Darío

This program presents a biography of Chilean poet Pablo Neruda and recitations of his poems. It profiles Nicaraguan writer and diplomat Rubén Darío, offers recitations of his work, and discusses his relationships with other important writers of his generation. The program also features an interview with Argentine novelist and essayist Jorge Luis Borges. In Spanish.

DVD / 103 min / 1982 / #FAM3167 - $119

Los Cuentos de Borges: "La Muerte y la Brújula"

This program dramatizes Borges's short story "La muerte y la brújula," a mystery revolving around three identical assassinations, each committed on the third day of the month for three consecutive months in different locations. In Spanish.

DVD / 58 min / 1992 / #FAM3477 - $169

Los Cuentos de Borges: "El Sur"

In this well-known Borges short story, a descendant of famous ancestors suffers a serious accident that takes him to the doors of death, where he experiences a unique mingling of the past and present. In Spanish.

DVD / 52 min / 1991 / #FAM3479 - $169

El Túnel

This program features a dramatization of the novel by Argentine novelist and literary critic Ernesto Sábato. It explores his ideas regarding the essential psychological subjectivity of the human condition. In Spanish.

DVD / 68 min / 2000 / #FAM3169 - $119

Spanish Literature

Introduction to Spanish Literature

Filmed at literary landmarks throughout Spain, this program provides an introduction to Spanish literature. It features interviews with scholars, dramatic readings, images of manuscripts, and artwork. In Spanish.

DVD / 50 min / 2002 / #FAM2996 - $169

A History of Spanish Literature

This program traces the development of Spanish literature from the writers of the Spanish Golden Age through the Generación del '98. It discusses the influence of Averroës, Maimonides, Ruiz, Manrique, De las Casas, and De la Vega and discusses "Cantar de mio Cid." It surveys such authors of the Golden Age as Cervantes and Lope de Vega and discusses the works of De Molina, Calderón de la Barca, De León, De la Cruz, Bécquer, De Alarcón, Ibañeta, Galdós, Unamuno, Baroja, Machado, Alberti, García Lorca, Hernández, Pidal, and Ortega y Gasset.

DVD / 26 min / 1995 / #FAM2533 - $119

El Quijote

In a performance that faithfully adheres to the definitive work by Cervantes, this program presents a compelling and tragic portrait of its hero's encroaching madness. In Spanish.

DVD / 307 min / 1991 / #FAM2767 - $139

Fuenteovejuna

This program presents a performance of Lope de Vega's Fuenteovejuna, often called Spain's greatest literary work of the Siglo de Oro. In Spanish.
