This tale of love and values unfolds in the class-conscious England of the early 19th century. The five Bennet sisters have been raised by their mother with one purpose in life: to find a husband. Life for the family is uneventful until a wealthy bachelor takes up residence on a nearby country estate. Amongst the man's sophisticated circle of friends, surely there will be no shortage of suitors for these eligible sisters. Love is soon in the air, but many trials and tribulations stand between these sisters and their happiness, including class, gossip, scandal, and of course, pride and prejudice.
