INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE ARTS

The International Society of the Arts is a fine arts auxiliary for Florida International University. The organization is designed to assist the Departments of Visual and Performing Arts through sponsorship of music, art and theatre events which will enable Florida International to share with friends in the community the rich resources of talent represented in our students and faculty and to provide scholarships for students in the fine arts.

Membership in the Society provides opportunities for friends in the community to participate in these activities and special events through the following donor levels:

Faculty/Student member	$10.00
Society member	$25.00
Patron member	$100.00
Fellow member (for designated scholarships)	$1000.00

Membership checks may be made to International Society of the Arts and mailed to Florida International University, Office of Development, Tamiami Trail, Miami, Florida 33199. Membership contributions are tax deductible.

Yes, I would like to assist fine arts programs and scholarships at Florida International through membership in the International Society of the Arts. My check for $_____ at the _____ membership level is attached.
