BUS STOP

Dear Faculty and Staff:

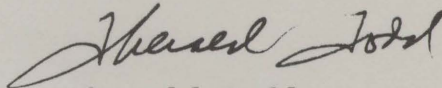

Take a March blizzard in Kansas, add a snow-bound bus, a bus stop cafe peopled with cowboys, a night club singer being kidnapped, an inebriated ex-professor, two waitresses, the bus driver and the local sheriff and you have the ingredients of BUS STOP, the funny and warmly human play by William Inge, FIU Theatre's next production. The NEW YORK TIMES theatre critic said of its first production: "Out of a rather ordinary situation, Mr. Inge has put together an uproarious comedy that never strays from the truth. Once its gets started it flows naturally and sympathetically through the hearts and hopes of some admirable people." Since its very successful opening in 1955, BUS STOP has continually proved to be an enormously appealing play.

Directed by Clardy Malugen, the newest member of FIU's Theatre Faculty, and designed by H. Paul Mazer and Maria Marrero, BUS STOP opens Wednesday, March 4th and plays through March 7th and continues March 11th through the 14th. A special price of $1.50 for all FIU faculty and staff has been set (our regular general admission price is $3.00). FIU students are free, other students pay $1.50.

As a special occasion, to make an "event" of attending, and to get to know our actors and staff, on Friday the 13th, we will have a party after the performance in the Presidential Suite in UH. A $4.00 price pays for your play ticket and the party. As our seating is limited, call 552-2895 to reserve tickets for this evening soon.

Reservations for all performance can be made at the same number. Curtain time is 8:00 pm in the VH 100 Theatre. Call now for reservations. BUS STOP is too good to be missed.

Sincerely,

Therald Todd
Director, FIU Theatre
