This sensitive and beautifully written play presents a young woman's struggle to find her way after being released from prison. Combining perceptive realism of character and language with brilliant theatricality, Getting Out conveys, with heartrending honesty and compassion, the struggle of someone fighting for her life against incredible odds.

Previous productions of the play, beginning at Actor's Theatre of Louisville, off-Broadway in New York, at Player's State Theatre and other regional theatres, have never failed to move audiences and win high praise from critics.

Our production will be directed by Therald Todd, the settings will be designed by Rolfe Bergsman and the costumes by Marilyn Skow.

Tickets are $5.00, students $4.00, FIU students free. Call 554-2895 for reservations.
