Europe's Policy towards Cuba: The Role of the European Union and Spain

by:

Sven Kühn von Burgsdorff

Former Head of the European Commission Delegation to Cuba

Wednesday, October 8, 2008

12:00 pm

LACC Conference Room, DM 358

Space is limited. Call 305.348.1991 to RSVP by Monday, September 22nd.
Lunch will be served.

Sven Kühn von Burgsdorff joined the European Commission in 1992, with foreign postings to Mozambique (1992 to 1996), Slovakia (1996 to 2000), and Cuba (2003 to 2007) where he was in charge of the Delegation in Havana. He held assignments in Haiti and New Caledonia. He is currently serving in DG Development as an advisor on the Caribbean and the Overseas Countries and Territories. Prior to joining the European Commission he worked for the German development cooperation in Togo and Frankfurt as a GTZ official. His academic experiences include assignments as Visiting Professor in international relations and diplomacy at Hawaii Pacific University (summer semester 2005) and extensive research on the socio-economic consequences of export-led industrialization processes in the Philippines (1982/83 and 1985). Mr Kühn von Burgsdorff holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from Freiburg University (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität).

This event is part of LACC's 2008-2009 Latin American and Caribbean Studies Distinguished Speaker Lecture Series.
