Uva de Aragón, Associate Director of the Cuban Research at Florida International University, holds a Ph.D. in Spanish and Latin American Literature from the University of Miami. A well known creative writer, she has published a dozen books of different genres - poetry, short stories, essays and a novel, Memoria del silencio. She also writes a weekly OpEd column for Diario Las Américas. One of her plays and several of her short stories have been translated into English and appear in anthologies such as Cuba. A Traveler's Literary Companion and The Voice of the Turtle. An Anthology of Cuban Stories, among others. She has merited literary awards in the United States, Latin America and Europe.

Carlos Alberto Montaner is one of the most influential and widely-read columnists in the Spanish-Language media, syndicated in dozens of publications in Latin America, Spain and the United States, and the author of more than 20 books.

José Ignacio Rasco, essayist and journalist, was a university professor at the University of Villanova in Havana, and at Biscayne College in Miami. His books include the essays, Huellas de mi cubanía and Integración cultural de América Latina.
