Summer Institute for Latino
Public Policy
June 16-20, 2008

30 young scholars convene in Washington D.C. for a one-week intensive training and orientation to public policy and legislative processes through a series of seminars, workshops, site visits to national Organizations, and meetings with Congressional representatives. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to join a nationwide network of young people with an interest in public policy. Past participants have been inspired and empowered by this fantastic hands-on program.

CRI and LACC will sponsor three outstanding students to represent FIU at the Institute. Program expenses (registration fee, round-trip airfare, room and board, and local transportation) will be covered by the sponsoring institutes. Application deadline is April 30, 2008.
