Amy Paige Condon:

Falling in Love with Bill Baggs

By Elman + Skinner

Award-winning freelance writer AMY PAIGE CONDON is the founder of the Refinery Writing Studio, where she teaches creative writing. She serves as associate editor of Beacon, a quarterly magazine devoted to solutions journalism from the Savannah Morning News.

With Cheryl and Griffith Day, she co-wrote the New York Times-bestselling “The Back in the Day Bakery Cookbook” (Artisan 2012). She followed it with the “Wiley’s Championship BBQ Cookbook” (Gibbs Smith), which was named the best cookbook of 2014 by the National Barbecue News, and she is now working with Che Farmer Matthew Raiford on his debut cookbook for Countryman Press.

Condon’s biography of MIAMI NEWS editor BILL BAGGS (1923-1969), “A Nervous Man Shouldn’t Be Here in the First Place, the Life of Bill Baggs,” was published by UGA Press in Fall 2020. Condon moved from Miami to Savannah, where she lives with her husband, three pups and a pig named Gus.
