Covering Cuba from Within: Journalists' Perspectives

A Panel Discussion

March 27, 2015 | 2:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | Graham Center Ballrooms

The Cuban Research Institute, in collaboration with the Latin American and Caribbean Center, has invited several experienced journalists representing independent news agencies who have covered news in Cuba on the ground. During this panel discussion, reporters will share their thoughts and experiences with the audience about how to keep a balanced and objective perspective while living on the island and facing multiple political pressures. This event will offer the audience an opportunity to hear and ask questions about recent economic reforms, human rights, civil society, and international relations in contemporary Cuba, among other topics of general interest.
