9:45 a.m. – 10:45 a.m.
Session 1

The Keys to Leadership
Dr. Larry Lunsford

WUC Theatre

There are several "key" ingredients to becoming a successful leader. This session will provide several recommendations on how aspiring and current leaders can work effectively with their organizations' members.

Service Quality: Providing Great Customer Service
Vivian Perez

WUC 155

This program helps leaders understand the factors that influence consumer "buy-in" of products and ideas, as well as how they evaluate service quality. It explores different service paradigms and provides a problem-solving model to influence satisfaction and "buy-in."

A Whack on the Side of the Head
Vicky Owles

WUC 157

Lacking in the creativity department? Want to learn how to tap into your creative side? Want to inspire others to "think outside the box?" If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this session is for you! Come get WHACKED!

Leadership and Ethical Behavior
Rebekah Sandlin

WUC Ballroom "A"

This presentation will explore the meaning and practical application of concepts such as values and ethics. Examples of ethical dilemmas for leaders will be explored, as well as methods for addressing these dilemmas. The presentation will also address values that affect the ethical behaviors of leaders.

The "F" Word
LEAD Team

WUC 245

The "F" Word? Yes, the "F" word... Facilitation. This session will provide leaders with easy-to-remember keywords and guidelines for facilitation activities, such as icebreakers and team builders. The model can also be applied to many public speaking and group situations.

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Session 2

How Leaders Deal with Sexual Harassment
Dr. Diann Newman

WUC Theatre

This interactive session will involve students role-playing various scenes depicting sexual harassment in the workplace and how leaders respond. After each role-play, the group will discuss strengths and suggestions for improvement in the leader's response.

Winning the War on Values in Conflict
Dr. Valerie Patterson

WUC 155

In this session, participants will have the opportunity to identify value conflicts inherent in leadership roles. Through the examination and application of several exercises developed by the presenter, participants will develop methods to resolve value conflicts that impede the practice of ethical leadership.

Group Processes and Leadership

WUC 157

There are subtle but common processes that occur in task groups that may have unintended or undesirable outcomes. Unfortunately, the research shows that inequality – not equality – of participation during interaction is the “norm” in task groups. As a leader, understanding these processes and how they operate will make you aware of their pervasive and negative effects.

Knowing Your Strengths
Jeffrey McNamee

WUC Ballroom “A”

This presentation will give insight and an introduction to a new way of looking at yourself and others. This workshop will introduce the audience to the Strengths philosophy, which is an exciting and uplifting way of leading and managing not only others but also yourself. This introductory workshop will be an exciting and engaging discussion about Strengths, what they are, how to identify them and why they are important.

FIU Over a Decade
Allison McComb

WUC 245

Although Miami has had a several-year history of minorities actually being the majority, the “face” of FIU's student body has changed significantly over the last ten years. Being an effective leader entails knowing about the population you are going to lead. If you want to know more about FIU's student demographics and the comparative populations at our BBC and UP campuses, this is the program for you!

12:45 p.m. – 1:15 p.m.
Keynote Speech – Joe Martin
WUC Ballroom "B"

Session 3

Suzanne Onorato
True Colors

WUC Theatre

Ever wonder why some people are so creative, while others have an eye for details? Or why certain individuals can work a crowd while others are better one-on-one? Participants of this program will learn more about themselves and their true colors.

Say what, "Enough is Enough"

Phillip "Flapp" Cockrell & Tricia Baldeosingh

WUC 155

Are you overly involved in campus organizations? Is your schoolwork getting in the way of campus activities? Do you struggle to find time to eat? If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then Enough is Enough. Come to this exciting interactive program that will provide you with ways to manage your time. Bring your planners!

How to Succeed: Strategies for Professional Success

Destroying Stereotypes

Luanna Rahman & Dixie Ann Belle

WUC Ballroom "A"

This presentation will explore the multicultural aspects of your identity. You will learn how these identifiers affect how people judge you and how you judge other people.

Keys to Understanding Yourself and Others

Monique Jacobs

WUC 245

Student leaders encounter many people of diverse backgrounds. To be effective leaders, we need to accept the differences in others.
