Eleventh Conference on Cuban and Cuban-American Studies
Beyond Perpetual Antagonism: Reimagining U.S.-Cuba Relations

February 23–25, 2017 | 8:30 AM–6:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | Graham Center Ballrooms

The Cuban Research Institute (CRI) at Florida International University is pleased to announce its 11th Conference. The conference main theme, Beyond Perpetual Antagonism: Reimagining U.S.-Cuba Relations, will address a array of cultural, social, economic, and political topics related to the often complex and conflicting links between the two countries, both historically and in current times. Throughout the three-day event, over 200 scholars and students from the United States and other countries will participate in 45 panels, representing a broad spectrum of disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences, including literature, music, the arts, history, sociology, anthropology, political science, and economics.

Registration is required to attend the event. Registration fees are detailed below and include three continental breakfasts, coffee, one reception, admission to an evening film screening, and all conference materials. To register and to obtain more information, please call (305) 348–1991, write cri@fiu.edu, or visit our website (cri.fiu.edu).

Pre-registration for the General Public (before February 10, 2017): $125

On site Registration: $150
