The University Center will undergo major major renovations in 1995.

The University Center is not accepting any reservations for events as of December 1, 1994.

The University Center Budget was also brought up. As it stands, the UC would be left with $57,760 to run the the building. However, the overhead will exceed this amount by at least $6,000 dollars. So, there is a question of SGC allocating funds for the UC.

Jason Feldstein seconded the motion. After discussion, Arthur Papillon called the question for a vote. At this time Jason Feldstein made a motion to continue discussion which was seconded by Javier Delgado. Jason asked for assurance that Kathy would be able to make University Council meetings on short notice. After further discussion, Arthur Papillon once again called the question. The vote was unanimous in favor of appointing Kathy.

Brian also introduced Kirill Reznik for the appointment to the Finance Chair. Steve Benen made a motion to open discussion on Kirill Reznik's appointment. Jason Feldstein seconded the motion. Arthur Papillon called the question. The vote was unanimous in favor of appointing Kirill Reznik to Finance Chair.

The SGC budget was brought up concerned paying the Beacon for a Graphic Artist or buying a computer with which to do the SGC Graphic Art. The idea of having UC Board member's salaries come out of the University wide budget.

Student Programming Committee Chair, Nakisha Armbrister also gave a report. She cleared up rumors that SPC was disbanding by stating that the rumors were untrue. Nakisha also brought up the idea of having a liason between SPC and SGC.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:05.
