Report for week 10/25-11/8

Kunga Kihohia

- I. I have set up a meeting with the Vice President of the Biscayne Bay Campus, Dr. Brian Haynes. We will be meeting on Wed. 15th to discuss the master plan of the Biscayne Bay Campus and how Student Government can play a part in making the plan reality. We will also discuss the relationship that we here on the Biscayne Bay Campus have with our surrounding community. I will also open lines of communication with all the other Vice Presidents and department heads within the university.
- II. I have contacted Oletta State River park, a park which Student Government adopted as the Official Park of the Biscayne Bay Campus. We are collaborating on a plan for students and student government to conduct some community service within the park. In return we will be able to use their facilities at a given time during the year.
- III. I will also be sending out congratulatory and welcome letters to all the new and returning elected officials in the recent elections.
- IV. Guest speaker...Valery Glen-Lorfils, Mobil Advocacy Program Coordinator. She will speak about the Victim Services Center initiatives and how students and student government.
