Department of Theatre and Dance presents

All in the Timing
SIX SHORT PLAYS by David Ives

OCTOBER 17-27, 1996
The faculty and staff of the Department of Theatre and Dance would like to welcome you to this production of All in the Timing. The opening of the Herbert and Nicole Wertheim Performing Arts Center is the culmination of a long-held dream. Since FIU's opening in 1972, we have been presenting our productions in spaces not designed to be theatres. While what we hope have been enjoyable evenings of theatre in VH 100 and DM 150, work in these spaces has always presented us with challenges. While the challenges have been stimulating to our imaginations, we have longed for a "real" theatre.

Now our dreams are realized; two beautiful, well-equipped performing spaces. And for our audience, a wonderful environment in which to view theatre. We expect the new facilities will stimulate us to higher levels of theatre performance. We welcome you to join with us in enjoying the benefits of our new home. We hope you enjoy tonight's performance and are able to join us for the other great shows this Season!

Who's Who in the Cast

Howard Horstmann has performed in plays and musicals ever since grade school all the way to high school; Grease, The Odd Couple, A Hatful of Rain, Brighton Beach Memoirs and The Merchant of Venice to name a few. After majoring in Sociology for a couple of years here at FIU, he then decided to also major in Theatre where he has appeared in The Servant of Two Masters.

Chantal JeanPierre is originally from Miami and is currently pursuing a degree in theatre here at FIU. She has been able to participate in multicultural plays as an actor and has truly enjoyed it. Her goal is to continue developing her skills and technique as an actor by attending graduate school and obtaining her Masters Degree in Theatre.

Boris Kievsky is currently a senior in what he feels like his ninetieth year in school. He is proud to be in the opening production of the new Studio Theatre. Boris began his theatre career three years ago and has had the pleasure of performing such roles as Robert Sideway and David Collins in Our Country’s Good, Gremio in Taming of the Shrew, and Daddy Taylor and V.O. Conklin in The Land of the Astronauts. Besides acting, Boris loves every other aspect of theatre. After FIU, Boris hopes to go on to an MFA program and eventually start his own theatre company.

Lorraine Lopez was born in Los Angeles, is 23 years old and has lived in Louisville, Kentucky and San Jose, California. Her credits at FIU have been Macbeth, Pippin and Look Homeward Angel. She began her acting career in high school in state-wide and national speech/debate tournaments.

Aimee Mendoza says Velcro! She is thrilled to be making her debut at FIU in All In The Timing. She would like to bow down to David Ives for his quirky, intellectual humor and for allowing us to play creatively with his work. She sends 101 hugs to Wayne and Jenny for catching her wave. For the other players-keep rock ‘n’ rolling! Thanks Leslie Ann for helping my “folds.” To Jon my “Chin-Look.” To my family: Thanks for coming. And to all eyes watching: Isn’t this neat?

Oldy McFarlane is very pleased to be in FIU’s first theatrical production in the new Wertheim Performing Arts Center. Most recently he appeared at Act Art Theatre in Silence of the Mambo by France-Luce Benson. Oldy is currently a member of the South Beach comedy troupe Punch 59, performing Wednesdays at the Comedy Zone. Other credits include Florida Shakespeare Theatre production of Hamlet (Guildenstern) and FIU theatre productions of The Marriage of Bette and Boo (Karl Hudlocke) and The Servant of Two Masters (Truffaldino). Oldy is a transfer student from Miami Dade Community College where he performed in several productions including The Fantastics (Matt), Neil Simon’s Rumors (Ken Gorman), Molier’s That Scoundrel Scapin (Scapin) and Beth Henley’s Crimes of the Heart (Barnett Lloyd). He is forever grateful to his mother and father for their loving support of his enduring passion for acting.
