Editor's Letter

The Spring 2016 edition of Inspicio features a video interview with Gail Sheehy, a journalistic icon. Sheehy is best known for her influential books of our times. She has written biographies and participated in the magazine and Vanity Fair. She played a part in the New Yorker.

While on the subject of journalism, we are thrilled to publish a memoir reminded me of a sweet time in my youth when I lived in Manhattan, before the age of ubiquitous graffiti. Since I am close to the same generation as Sheehy, reading her memoirs and sometimes reporting the thoughts of a central character.

Contributors to Inspicio (FIU students, faculty, and talented people of interest) are focused on arts activities outside of the immediate FIU community. Based on the art disciplines whenever it is ready for publication, and as a sophisticated enabler of the arts that becomes a "must-see".
