FIU Theatre
A MESSAGE FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

PASSION. Passion is the driving force behind all that we do here at Florida International University Theatre. As distinguished faculty, we are outstanding theatre artists and teachers whose curiosity about the human condition leads us to CREATE. INNOVATE. INSPIRE.

We create, innovate, and inspire as exemplary collaborators dedicated to quality in service of the needs of our wonderful students and members of the community at large. We are also risk-takers, challenging conventions in an attempt to best educate our students and to illuminate the joy and struggle of humanity through dynamic, dramatic storytelling for our audience. And we practice master director Sir Peter Brook's two rules of the stage:

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN & SOMETHING MUST HAPPEN

There is no theatre without you, our audience. Thank you for your support.

NOTES FROM THE DIRECTOR

All of us at FIU Theatre are very proud to present the first college production of Kingdom City. This play talks about issues at the very core of our lives as artists, students, and teachers.

We are grateful for the help and encouragement we received from the author, Sheri Wilner. Her generosity was extraordinary.

Thank you for coming to see Kingdom City. I hope you enjoy it.

-Michael Yawney

Alumni Spotlight

For this playbill, our Alumni Spotlight shines on Nenni Delmestre, Class of 1984. Nenni was born in Split, Croatia, where she returned after graduating from FIU with high honors. Upon her return, she began her career as a director and has directed plays in Croatia and Slovenia, as well as in Venezuela, Mexico, Macedonia and Italy. She is also a successful translator, having translated several plays from English, Spanish and Italian into her native language. She became the Director in Residence at the Croatian National Theatre in 1997, and was the Artistic Director of the Croatian National Theatre in Split from 2002 to 2004. She served as President of the Theatre Council atCNT from 2008 to 2010, and was the Program Director for the Festival Marulicevi in 2009 and 2010 as well as for the Festival of Croatian Drama for Children – Mali Marulic in 2012 and 2013. Nearly all of her productions have participated in National and International festivals, where they have received numerous awards. We are very proud of Nenni’s accomplishments and know that she represents FIU Theatre well on the international stage.

The Kennedy Center
THE JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

The Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival™ 46, part of the Rubenstein Arts Access Program, is generously funded by David and Alice Rubenstein.

Additional support is provided by The Honorable Stuart Bernstein and Wilma E. Bernstein; Dr. Gerald and Paula McNichols Foundation; the National Committee for the Performing Arts; The Harold and Mimi Steinberg Charitable Trust; and Beatrice and Anthony Welters and the AnBryce Foundation.

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs involving scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, dramaturgs, playwrights, designers, stage managers and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for invitation to the KCACTF regional festival and may also be considered for national awards recognizing outstanding achievement in production, design, direction and performance.

Last year more than 1,300 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, reward, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.
DEAD MAN’S CELL PHONE
February 26—March 6, 2016

A stranger dies at the next table in a restaurant and his cell phone rings. Of course, Jean answers it, which sets her off on a twisted journey of discovery in this off-kilter comedy.

Picking up a ringing phone seems innocent enough. But each call pulls Jean deeper into international intrigue, family dysfunction...and love. MacArthur “Genius” Grant winner Sarah Ruhl proves her genius in this endlessly surprising tale.

THE TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA
April 8—April 17, 2016

The classic story of two young men in the big city finding love but losing friendship. Presented in celebration of Shakespeare’s First Folio Exhibition at the Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Frost Museum.

Romance is easy--friendship is hard! A crazy gallery of characters (ranging from the Duke of Milan to the most sour-tempered dog ever) face the consequences of friendships gone wrong. Shakespeare's first comedy tells a story about kids leaving home to find out who really matters to them.
