Announces a learning opportunity for Hispanic undergraduates...

Inter-University Program for Latino Research: Summer Institute for Latino Public Policy

Dates: June 12-18, 2010

30 young scholars convene in Washington D.C. for a one week intensive training and orientation to public policy and legislative processes through a series of seminars, workshops, site visits to national Organizations, and meeting with Congressional representatives. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to join a nationwide network of young people with an interest in public policy. Past participants have been inspired and empowered by this fantastic hands-on program.

LACC and the Cuban Research Institute (CRI) will sponsor three outstanding students to represent FIU at the Institute. All expenses related to the program will be covered (round-trip air and local transportation, lodging at GWU dormitories, meals and classroom materials) Participants are responsible for covering medical and travel insurance and incidental expenses.

Application deadline is Monday, April 5, 2010.

Program information and application can be found in the CRI or IUPLR websites at:
